

An invitation to join the Board of AIFST

australian institute of food science & technology

Now like never before is an exciting time to be involved in shaping the future of AIFST

The AIFST play an important role in leading and supporting the growth of food science and technology disciplines.

Australia is recognised for our reliability, our ingenuity and quality of food products. Now in a disrupted global economy we could grow that reputation by continuing to invest in STEM disciplines critical to the future success of food manufacturing and the food industry.

Join the AIFST Board

OUR PURPOSE:

Uniting food industry professionals in the science of feeding our future

OUR MISSION:

To advance and inspire all food sector professionals through education, collaboration and recognition to champion a robust, innovative science based Australian food industry to meet future food needs.

AIFST is seeking to appoint two, passionate, dynamic and skilled Non-Executive Directors to join our Board.

AIFST is Australia's premier, member-based institute representing food scientists and technologists. As a director, you will be supporting the delivery of the AIFST vision, building upon the outstanding reputation of the Institute, and driving a culture of growth and fresh thinking to feed our future.

You will bring to the Board reliability and resilience, and support and guide the delivery of our short- and long-term strategies. You will be committed to excellence in governance and support the Board to operate with effectiveness and rigour, improving performance and managing risk.

These positions are an excellent opportunity to work with a high performing Board to deliver significant and measurable impact across a significant sector of the Australian economy.
